Dalmuir Park has undergone some fantastic restoration work, and we are offering you the opportunity to help out! Dalmuir Park's Volunteer Group is a fun and exciting group of like minded people. We are a very friendly bunch, varying from 16 - 65+ years, and we all connect through a shared love for Dalmuir Park.

Volunteering is a fantastic way of learning new skills, gaining new experiences, meeting new friends, and keeping fit. Anyone can volunteer, there is no experience required! All equipment is provided; all you have to bring is your smile and your banter!

Our activities are pretty varied, and so there is something for everyone! One week you may find yourself knee deep in water, raking out unwanted pond weeds. The following week you could be building bird or bat boxes. Whatever the activity, you can be sure of a fun day out!

Phone, email, or visit our office, your always welcome in Dalmuir Park. For further enquiries email: sandra.anton@west-dunbarton.gov.uk tel: 01419526074

Dalmuir Parks History

Dalmuir Park is a special place with an inspirational history! Here are some quick historical facts:

- Dalmuir Park was opened in 1906 within the grounds of Dalmuir House. It was built by the people, for the people!
- The park has over 100 years of history and has been an important part of community since the 17th century.
- Dalmuir Park is the former site of the Richard Collins family estate, and the famous Paper Mill Factory.
- Dalmuir Park has survived the Clydebank Blitz of 1941, which decimated the surrounding area.

How can I find out more?

The most effective way to learn the history of Dalmuir Park is to join one of our Inspirational guided walks. These are fun and educational, and tailored towards family groups. Walks last roughly 90 minutes, but we will take you back more than 100 years ago! To register your interest please contact Sandra Anton (details are on the back page of this brochure).

Alternatively, there are six signage boards placed within the park (refer to X's on the map). These are crammed with fascinating information, which you can read at your leisure when visiting the park.
