

Planting Design

Planting approach is to utilise native trees, hedging, differing wild flower grass mixes and native shrub planting to create a biodiverse, low maintenance landscape with seasonable interest. Some mown grass areas with be included as verges and for general recreation.

Community growing area is likely to include raised beds and with species appropriate to intended use .

New Community Greenspace

On the site of the former St Eunan's Primary School

