

Priority 1

Objective 1:

Increased skills for life & learning

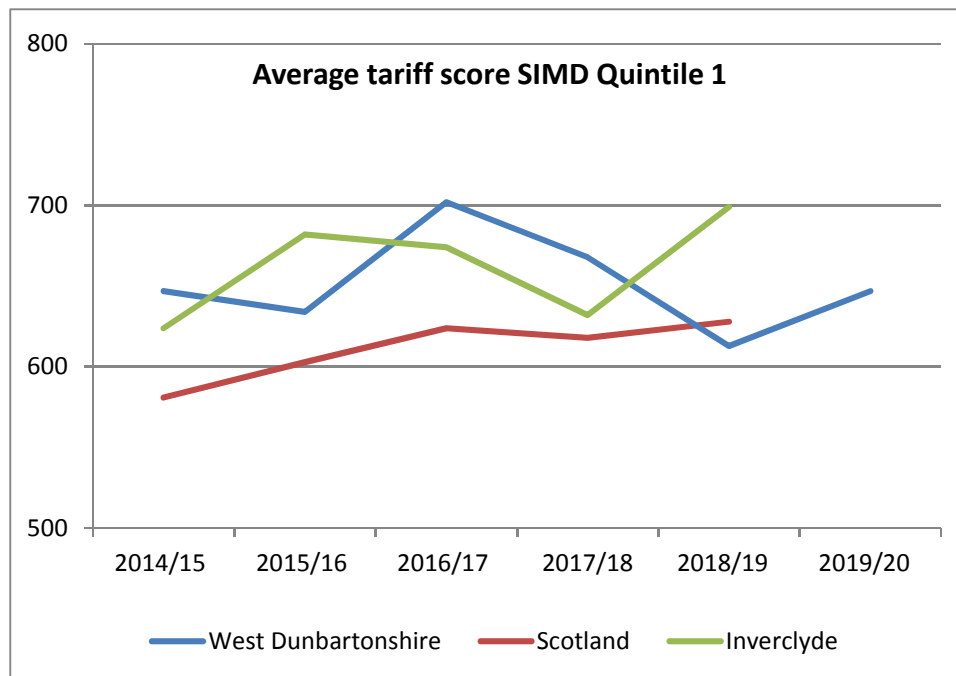

Indicator:

Average tariff score SIMD quintile 1

Target:

714

What does the data say?

The latest results for 2019/20 show that West Dunbartonshire performance has increased from the previous year by 34 to 647. This is 2 below the Scottish average of 649.

Many indicators focus on academic success, which can vary year on year by cohort. As such, Education, Learning & Attainment carry out trend analyses to ensure improvement over time.